ADA THE VICTOR

OVERWHELMS TAHLEQUAH IN SATURDAY'S GAME BY SCORE OF 53 TO 0.

Fifty-three to nothing.

That, in brief, tells the tale of the awful slaughter of Tahlequah at the hands of the Ada braves in the great football game played on the Ada normal grounds Saturday afternoon. The game was a clean one and a fast one—so fast, in fact that it was a hard matter for the reporter to keep up with it. The Ada boys displayed team work that resembled a machine in precision. The visitors scarcely had the ball in their possession enough to keep in practice with their signals, although Thorne did some effective tackling. Only once or twice was the Ada goal line in any danger and beyond these the home team did not resort to a kick, confining themselves to straight playing. Both sides used the forward pass frequently but the Ada team excelled in line bucking. They tore great holes through the opposition, and when occasionally the Tahlequah team came into possession of the ball, they were seldom able to make much impression on the human wall against which they hurled themselves. The ball would soon come back to Ada and the home boys would start off across the field for another touch down. If the Tahlequah correspondent of the Oklahoman, who a few days prior to the game reported that the Northeastern team would have a walk-over, had seen the game he would have been under necessity of changing his statement to "walked over," for that was certainly the way the visitors fared throughout the game.

In the first quarter Ada kicked off. Tahlequah, unable to make gains, kicked out of danger. Matthews received the ball and was then forced out of the game by a sprained ankle much to the regret of the Ada fans.

In less than five minutes after some good run by C. McMillan and McCain, and good team work, the first touch down was made by McCain. Score, 6 to 0.

Tahlequah then kicked off. Ada lost

COMMENTS:

GENTLEMEN:—I was much interested in the moving pictures "From the Manger to the Cross." They carefully avoided exaggeration and seemed so far as is possible now, true to the situation and to the spirit of the narrative. Many of them were very beautiful. I wish they might be seen by a great multitude of people all over the United States.

Very Truly,

Kansas City Feature Film Co., Kansas City, Mo.

GENTLEMEN:—While in St. Louis last week I had the pleasure of seeing the photoplay "From the Manger to the Cross" given before an audience of thousands of people at the big Hippodrome. I enjoyed the pictures because of the spirit of reverence throughout them, and because I believe they are as nearly true to the Life of Christ as could possibly be. It seems to me that these pictures can be used with telling effect in bringing before the people the Life and Death of our Lord. I am glad that several of our pastors here and the Y. M. C. A. are to help one of our moving picture men in getting this splendid picture before our people in Fort Scott.

Yours very sincerely,

SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL GAME.

The victory over Tahlequah has filled the Ada normal boys with a strong hope of being able to vanquish Edmond Thursday and Durant on Thanksgiving. Durant defeated Tahlequah by a score of 26 to 0, whereas, the Ada team made it 53 to 0. The Tahlequah boys stated that although the Durant team is some heavier, it is not as good on team work as Ada. The score seems to bear this out. A victory over Edmond would put the Ada boys in the front rank and it is not necessary to say that they are preparing for the effort of their lives.

In passing it is only fair to say that the Tahlequah squad is a gentlemanly crowd and played good clean ball.

It is rumored that Gov. Cruce may make the race against Senator Gore to vindicate himself before the people. He has not asked our opinion about the matter, but it is our notion that it is sometimes best to let well enough alone, and this is one of the times.

The peanut carnival at Duncan is a huge success, no fewer than 10,000 people attending the first day. It is estimated that the lowly goober will bring $4,000,000 to Stephens this year. King Cotton seems to have been dethroned in that section.

Bryan says the opposition of Senator Aldrich to the currency bill is a knock that is a real boost. In view of Aldrich's past reputation for thinking only of the welfare of the big business interests of the nation, this looks entirely possible, for people are a trifle leery of him and his opinions.

Mrs. Pankhurst, the fighting leader of the English suffragets, has been denied admission to the U. S. as an undesirable alien. A striking instance of a stitch in time saving nine, for this emulor of Carrie Nation would soon have been trying to stir up the same kind of mob violence that has disgraced England. We have troubles enough without importing any.

We thought the love affairs of Miss Catherine Elkins, daughter of the late senator from West Virginia, had been buried in oblivion, but now comes the report that after seven or eight years of careful consideration she has decided between her Italian duke and a plain American citizen. As the report does not state how she decided, we shall probably be regaled for some weeks to come with various rumors.

New Mortgage Law.

No more are mortgages listed for taxation by the assessor. A new law went into effect about ten days ago requiring the tax to be paid on mortgages at the time they are filed.

The rate of taxes on mortgages is as follows per $100:
5 years or more, 50c, 3 years or more 30c.

Less than three years, 20c.
Mortgage less than $100, 50c.
During the first ten days the treasurer collected $85.00.

This law will compel the payment of taxes on foreign mortgages and a mortgage cannot be released and cannot be used as evidence in court until the tax is paid.

The tax is apportioned the same as other taxes according to the location of the real estate. The law applies only to real estate mortgages and is expected to result in many thousands of dollars of taxes which has heretofore escaped taxation.

INDIGESTION OVERCOME

Overcome by Simple Remedy.

Hurried and careless habits of eating, irregular meals and foods that do not harmonize, tend to weaken the digestive organs and result in different forms of stomach troubles.

If you are one of the unfortunates who have drifted into this condition, eat simple foods only, slowly, regularly and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. H. J. Smith, Thomasville, Ga., says: "I suffered from a stomach trouble, was tired, worn out and nervous. A friend advised me to take Vinol. My stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have a perfect digestion and I wish every tired, weak woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good."

The recovery of Mrs. Smith was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cod's livers—aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol. We will return the purchase money every time Vinol fails to benefit. Gwin & Mays Co., Druggists, Ada, Oklahoma.

A FEW LITTLE SMILES

Odious Comparison.

"Bella and Grace are no longer friends."
"How did they happen to fall out?"
"They didn't fall out. They fell in, and when each saw what the water had done to the other's complexion and imagined how her own complexion must look, they both got very mad and haven't spoken since."

Odious Nonchalance.

"I sentence you to two years in prison," said the judge, severely.
"Well, judge," replied Plodding Pete, "I know you are doing this to humiliate me, but I want to remind you that some very wealthy and some very talented people have been going to prison lately."

A Desperate Character.

"This man demands a reduction to his luncheon check. He puts up a strong talk."

"What if we refuse?" said the manager of the fashionable New York hotel.

"Then he threatens to take advantage of the bankruptcy act."

Hard to Explain.

"Miss Perkins says you are a splendid conversationalist."

"I wonder how she got that idea."

"Oh, you're too modest."

"Not at all. I was wondering how she reached the conclusion that I could talk when she never lets me put in a word edgewise."

Rara Avis.

"A likeable fellow, Wisley. Everybody seems to have a good word for him. What do you suppose is the secret charm about him that attracts so?"

"Oh, I dunno. Maybe it's because he's one of the common people and is always so modest about it."

DOES US ALL.

"Oh! you don't cut much ice," she said witheringly.

But the gallant youth was a literal soul.

"I cut as little as I can," he answered; "I'm an iceman."

'Twas Fatal.

His form is still, his eyes are dim,
He's past repaving;
A motor car bore down on him,
He postponed moving.

Easy.

"You never hear of a wealthy bachelor being run over by an auto."

"That's so; I wonder why it is?"

"To a man who is used to dodging mothers with marriageable daughters dodging automobiles is child's play."

Wondering.

"That new suit of hers has me guessing."

"What about?"

"I've been wondering whether or not there are pockets in the tails of her cutaway coat."

Whirligig of Time.

City Business Man—At last I am rich enough to retire from business.

Friend—What are you going to do?

City Business Man—I'm going to buy the old farm I ran away from and live on it.

Letting Well Enough Alone.

"I am going to make that boy stop whistling!" said the nervous man.

"Don't. If you know the words of that song you'd be thankful to let him whistle it instead of singing it."

Main Crop.

"There are so many things I was disappointed to find I couldn't raise on my farm."

"I would be satisfied if I could only raise the mortgage on mine."

Note of Alarm.

WASHMOOD GETS A NEW TRIAL

Oklahoma City, Oct. 20.—A Washmood, twice convicted in the lower courts on a charge of complicity in the assassination of Deputy United States Marshal Ben Collins near Emet in 1906, was granted a new trial by the criminal court of appeals Saturday. Washmood appealed to the highest court from the judgment of the district court in Carter county, rendered in March, 1911, finding him guilty of the charge and sentenced him to be hanged. Judge George W. Clark of Oklahoma county presided over the second and last trial, Judge Huston of Guthrie being the trial judge over the first trial of the case in October, 1910. The jury in the first trial fixed the penalty at death, but Judge Huston set aside the verdict and granted Washmood a new trial.

The opinion of the criminal court of appeals, which is lengthy but clearly written, was prepared by Attorney Bert Barefoot, appointed special judge for the court in place of Judge Henry M. Furman, disqualified an account of having been connected with the case as counsel. The judgment of the 1911 trial is reversed and the case remanded for new trial by the decision.

The alleged assassination of Collins, deputy marshal and Indian policeman, occurred in what is now Johnston county, on August 1, 1906. The case was transferred from Ada to Ardmore, thence to Tishomingo and back to Ardmore where the first trial was held before Judge Huston. Attorneys for the defendant contended that the district court of Carter county was without jurisdiction to try the case, for the reason that the alleged crime was one against the laws of the United States, and that it was committed before the erection of the state, Special Judge Barefoot holds in this opinion that the state courts have jurisdiction to try cases arising before statehood. He quotes from an opinion from the supreme court wherein the same identical question was involved, the court holding that state courts had jurisdiction over cases arising before statehood.

It was the contention of the state in the second trial of Washmood that one Pote Pruitt had been shot by Ben Collins while the latter was deputy marshal, the result being that Pote Pruitt was injured about the leg; that Clint and Pote Pruitt, brothers, had employed J. B. Miller and B. B. Burrell to assassinate Collins and that the defendant was employed to get Collins to leave his home in order to give Miller and Burrell an opportunity to assassinate him. This was the theory upon which the case was tried.

at Ada in 1909. They were under arrest on a charge of assassination of A. A. Bobbitt.

Washmood is nearly 70 years old. At the time of the alleged murder of Collins, he was engaged in the insurance business in the southern part of the state, his home being at Durant.

The Youth's Companion in 1914.

Seven college presidents and a number of college instructors, including ex-President Taft, will contribute to The Youth's Companion during 1914.

Then there is Gene Stratton Porter, whose stories of Indiana woods and swamps have made her famous, and Kate Douglas Wiggin, who never wrote a dull line in her life, and Mrs. Burton Harrison, who remembers when conversation was really an art as practised in Washington and in the manor houses of Virginia. And this is just a beginning of the list.

If you know The Companion, you have a pretty clear idea of what is in store for next year's readers. If you do not know, ask us to send you sample copies—for instance, those containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stanwood Pier's fine serial—"His Father's Son." Full Announcement for 1914 will be sent with the sample copies.

For the year's subscription of $2.00 there is included The Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1913, dating from the time the subscription is received. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.

Among other free advertising done sent to the News was one about a batch of prizes to be given for the best cattle shipped to a certain northern market. Since we have packing houses at Oklahoma City and in Texas, we saw no special reason for thus aiding in turning the trade to northern markets and very promptly chucked the stuff into the waste basket. Home industries first with us every time.

Much criticism is heard in Oklahoma and elsewhere about the number of needless and useless laws passed by the legislatures. Well, now, how would the boys ever make records and get back again unless they managed to push through a lot of this rubbish? Hard on the people, perhaps, but what is that when a job is at stake? The people are used to it, anyway.

Paris has always claimed to be the social center of the universe. Jack Johnson and wife have just taken up their abode there and aspire to social prominence. No doubt they will give the artscrats an exhibition of real high life—that is, unless indeed, the French government is wise enough to throw them out, a contingency we pray may never happen.

Two geniuses claim to have invented a machine consisting of a big wheel so arranged that the rider will be seated within the circumference while the wheel itself is driven along with an aeroplane motor, and which has a theoretical speed of 720 miles an hour. The theory may be sound enough, but when it comes to practice the chances are that it will pile up in the first mud hole encountered, just as many other theories have done before. The inventors will have to get it off the ground somehow or other if they expect it to be safe.

Legislative investigations may sometimes be all right, but as a rule we have noticed that the results are about the same as digging into an old grave—the bones and stench are there and that is all.

HAYS GETS SUPREME COURT DECISION

Little Rock, Ark., July 11.—The Arkansas supreme court today decided the gubernatorial primary contest in favor of George W. Hays. Several days ago the state central committee canvassed the returns of June 21 and declared Judge Hays the nominee. Former Congressman S. Brundidge, an opponent, contested and the chancery court restrained the secretary of state from certifying out the party nominee.

The supreme court reversed Chancellor Martineau, but did not direct the placing of Judge Hays' name on the official ballots July 23, and unless the decree to this effect is rendered voters will be compelled to write his name on the ballots, as the time limit for placing his name on the ballots has expired. The present political muddle is one of the worst ever seen in Arkansas, there being four candidates—a Progressive, a regular Republican, a Democrat and a Socialist, in the field.

HOBSON EXPECTS TO BE SENATOR

Montgomery, Ala., July 12.—Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson, congressman from the Sixth Alabama district in confidence that he will be elected to succeed Joseph F. Johnston in the United States senate. Senator Johnston's term will not expire until March, 1915, but the primary to select his successor will be held next year, so the campaign for the toga is already on. The indications are that it will be a straightout fight between Johnston and Hobson.

Capt. Hobson already has stumped a large part of the state and he plans to continue an active and aggressive campaign until the date of the primary election. In making formal announcement of his candidacy for the senate he outlined his policies as follows: The upbuilding of the navy, improvement in the education of the masses, a vigorous policy of development in the state's resources, and, in general, the restoration of the government to the hands of the people and purging the government of men who serve special interests, especially those who do the bidding of sinister liquor interests and depend for their success upon the debauching of the morals of the people and the corruption of the electorate.

In his fight for re-election Senator Johnston is standing on a platform constructed of his military record and public service. He is a defender of corporate interests against radical legislation, does not readily fall in with pyrotechnic reform movements, and advocates local option as a safe method of handling the aggravating liquor problem in Alabama.

At first glance it would seem that Hobson stands little show of success against the veteran Johnston. The latter has the prestige that is naturally attached to a brilliant record in the Confederate army. He served from the beginning to the end of the four years' conflict, was four times wounded in battle and rose from a private in the ranks to the grade of captain. As a business man and financier he has been conspicuously successful, while his record in the public service embraces two terms as governor of Alabama in addition to six years in the United States senate.

On the other hand, it is not to be forgotten that Hobson won his seat in congress by defeating John H. Bankhead, who admittedly outclasses Johnston as a veteran campaigner and astute politician. In his contest with Hobson Bankhead possessed the advantages of a Confederate record, a public career covering forty years or more, and strong political connections and powerful family influences. Despite these advantages, young Hobson, in what was virtually his first whirl at practical politics, won the nomination and election.

Hobson's chief asset is his ability as a stump speaker. While far from possessing any power of oratory he seldom fails to make a favorable impression on his audience, not so much by force of argument as by his apparent earnestness and undoubted enthusiasm. His policy of progress, as opposed to the conservatism of Johnston, is also reckoned as a point in his favor, in view of the present trend in American politics.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer."

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains.

Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles.

PROGRESS OF OIL WELL NEAR STONEWALL

The Algonquin Oil Co. which started drilling for oil within 5 miles of Stonewall sometime ago got to only a short depth when the ground began caving in and casing had to be ordered which has caused some delay in the work of drilling. However the casing arrived a few days ago and work has begun again.

Mr. Edgett of Caney, Kan., representing the Caney Drilling Co., arrived here yesterday and was taken to the well by L. P. Carpenter on whose place they are now drilling. He will be here several days and stated to the News reporter that the prospects for oil were good and also that he liked Stonewall very much as it was a very progressive town for its size.

After the committee early in the day had ordered the bill reported Wednesday, minority members began to plan their reports. There probably will be two, one of Senators Penrose, Smoot, Lodge, McCumber, Gallinger and Clark, and a separate report by Senator La Follette, who has had a corps of experts at work on the bill and who will have amendments that will constitute practically a new measure.

Senator Smoot has in preparation a new wool schedule which he intends to submit as an amendment Wednesday. Senator Simmons will file the majority report and make the opening argument for the democrats and the administration. During consideration of the measure Senator Simmons will have general charge of the debate for the democrats and Senator Penrose for the Republicans.

TARIFF BILL WILL BE REPORTED WEDNESDAY

Washington, July 11.—Discussion of the Underwood-Simmons tariff revision bill, with its lengthy free list, greatly reduced rates on all commodities and its new system of ad valorem, instead of specific, rates actually will begin in the senate next Wednesday noon.

On Monday, however, the opening assault upon the democratic measure will be made by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, who will speak on the agricultural schedule. The Finance Committee agreed that he should be given the floor ahead of the formal opening, because he is obliged to leave Washington Monday night.

Chairman Simmons, speaking for the democrats at the Finance Committee meeting, said he thought debate on the bill could be concluded in five weeks. Senator Smoot of the minority agreed with Mr. Simmons, declaring the republicans had no intention of purposely prolonging the discussion.

After the committee early in the day had ordered the bill reported Wednesday, minority members began to plan their reports. There probably will be two, one of Senators Penrose, Smoot, Lodge, McCumber, Gallinger and Clark, and a separate report by Senator La Follette, who has had a corps of experts at work on the bill and who will have amendments that will constitute practically a new measure.

Senator Smoot has in preparation a new wool schedule which he intends to submit as an amendment Wednesday. Senator Simmons will file the majority report and make the opening argument for the democrats and the administration. During consideration of the measure Senator Simmons will have general charge of the debate for the democrats and Senator Penrose for the Republicans.

In the ancient town hall in Lüneberg there is a mausoleum containing a costly glass structure. This contains a ham, and is a monument to a pig. There is an inscription engraved upon a marble slab; as follows: "Passers-by! ### Becomes Bride of Zulu Prince.

Danville, Va., Oct. 20.—Quite out of the ordinary was the international matrimonial alliance consummated here today, inasmuch as it involved neither an American heiress nor a title of European nobility. The bride was Miss Julia Smith, a young nee living in the town of Almagro, and the bridegroom Prince Madikane Q. Cele, whose father is said to be a high potentate of the Zulus in South Africa.

Prince Cele came to the United States about seven years ago, having heard of the country and its opportunities through a missionary in South Africa. He took his first lesson in English speaking at the Slater School in Winston-Salem, N. C., and while there learned of Hampton Institute, where he went the next year. Recently he finished a six-year course at Hampton, where his bride of today also was a student.

At Hampton, Prince Cele mastered the wheelwright and blacksmith trades and gained a knowledge of other practical arts. Now he intends to return with his bride to his native land and together they will endeavor to teach the Zulus to make use of their natural resources. They also will conduct an active campaign in behalf of Christianity. As a missionary the Prince's expenses will be paid by Hampton Institute.

CURRENCY BILL ALMOST READY

Washington, Oct. 19.—Conference between President Wilson and Republican members of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, with a view toward making the pending currency bill a nonpartisan measure, will be held within the next few days at the White House.

The President has been assured that not only a report from the committee is possible by Nov. 10, but that the legislation can be enacted before the December session, provided Republicans and Democrats reach a common agreement on the bill.

Hearings before the Senate committee are to be continued until Oct. 25, but the coming week may see the beginning of preliminary work at night on the bill itself, changes and amendments about which it is felt there is already unanimity being in contemplation so as to leave as few disputed points as possible for next week.

The President told his friends today that his talk with Senator Nelson (Rep.) on the currency situation was most satisfactory and encouraged him to discuss the subject further with other Republicans.

From the first it was said today the President has not been desirous of making the bill a party measure, though he feels that the Democratic party would be held responsible for whatever law is framed. The idea that Mr. Wilson was uncompromisingly committed to the House bill led largely to that impression, but within the last few days he has made it known that if the Senate will keep the main essentials which the Administration desires changes in harmony with the fundamentals will be acceptable.

In this spirit the President will confer with Republicans, and he is greatly encouraged over the possibility of getting a unanimous report from the committee. This undoubtedly would mean that debate on the floor of the Senate will be much shorter than was the case with the tariff.

The president will discuss with Representative Underwood, majority leader, tomorrow exactly what should be done by the House while the Senate committee is dealing with the currency. Mr. Underwood has called attention to the restlessness of House members, and recent conferences with Republicans and Democrats on the Senate committee have given the president a basis for a reply on just what program can be followed.

Rating on Mortgage Tax.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 19.—The Attorney General's Department has given a ruling that the mortgage tax law of the Fourth Legislature does not apply to mortgages which have been assessed for taxation for the year 1913. In those cases the assessed tax is a lien against the obligation until paid.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system. Like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

MRS. PANKHURST STILL HELD AT NEW YORK

Washington, Oct. 19.—The President of the United States is to take a hand in deciding the question of whether Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, militant suffragette of England, shall be admitted to this country.

President Wilson tonight called a conference for early tomorrow with Secretary Wilson of the Department of Labor and Commissioner General Caminetti, of the Immigration Bureau. High government officials, who are believed to know the attitude of the President, predicted that Mrs. Pankhurst would be admitted.

New York, Oct. 19.—"If I am deported, the ship taking me back will carry me to my death."

These words, carrying a veiled threat of a "hunger strike," were uttered today in the immigration detention station on Ellis Island by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette who arrived here yesterday on the steamer La Provence, and was ordered deported as an undesirable alien. An appeal against deportation lodged with Immigration Commissioner Caminetti in Washington is expected to be decided tomorrow.

Mrs. Pankhurst was talking to Mrs. Harriet Stanton Black and several other woman suffrage leaders who had been given special permission to visit her. She is quoted as having said that in view of the fact that her system had been undermined by six "hunger strikes" in prisons abroad, she did not believe she would be able to survive a seventh.

Today Mrs. Pankhurst waited on Ellis Island and not without some impatience, word from Washington as to whether she would be permitted to land under bond to carry out her lecture tour or whether she must go back to France, whence she came here.

"Have there been any dispatches from Washington on my case?" she frequently asked.

When word finally was received that Commissioner Caminetti had declined today to admit her to bail, Mrs. Pankhurst prepared again to sleep at the immigration station tonight. She still hopes her case will be decided in her favor tomorrow, and that she will be able to speak at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, or, at least, be allowed to land under bond to keep her engagement to address that meeting.

"From the Hanger to the Cross" (Malem)

By W. Stephen Bush

The title of this production to be classed as the greatest achievement in cinematography are many, but chief among them is the realism of it all. It is not a Passion Play; it is the very story of the Passion and of many incidents recorded by the evangelists. It is indeed a cinematographic gospel. Because of this sublime work it will be easier than it was before to "go forth and teach all nations."

The Oberammergau Play is in the main nothing more than a dramatic recital, while the films reverently avoid any distinctly dramatic display the Oberammergau exhibition seeks to portray events which happened in places thousands of miles away from Bavaria and which occurred in an environment, which no skill or art of man could re-create, while the films bring before our eyes not only the events and characters of the sacred records, but show them to us in the very places where they occurred. The reels show us the real Lake of Tiberias and the very type of nets in which Peter and the other fishermen of Galilee pursued their ancient calling; they show us the very road on which Joseph, Mary and the boy Jesus returned out of Egypt into their own beloved Nazareth; they show us some glimpses at least of the glorious temple of Solomon, as reconstructed by archeologists; they make the tragedy of the crucifixion stand out in plain but rigidly historic relief using as far as this is humanly possible, the very ground on which it was enacted; they follow in the journey to Golgotha, the Way of Sorrows (Via Dolorosa) trodden by Christian pilgrims even to this day in honor of a very old and authentic tradition; they show us as it existed nineteen centuries ago the barren and desolate regions about the Dead Sea, where The Voice in the Wilderness was heard; we see the real Bethany, parts of the ancient road that led north out of Jerusalem in the direction of Galilee and along which Mary and Joseph had been traveling, when they became alarmed about the absence of their child; we are led to the very spot where the shepherds tended their flocks and where the first glad tidings were heard.

It would far exceed the limits of this article to enumerate more instances. I can only pause to commend the fine reverent spirit of the master hand which directed this production. A chaste decorum characterizes every scene. Treading on ground which was full of pitfalls they have not made one single misstep. The treatment of the "Childhood of Jesus" is typical of this rare judgment and perfect discrimination. The pictures tell their own story and a lecture is scarcely needed. All the quotations from Holy Writ that are used in connection with the titles on the screen have been selected with great judgment and sufficiently elucidate every single scene.

The character of the subject will evoke reverence in every human mind. The work of the producers will increase this reverence.

The exhibition in Wanamaker's Auditorium was attended by many clergymen.—Extract from N. Y. Herald.

WINTER BEGINS IN EARNEST THIS WEEK

Washington, Oct. 19.—Wintry weather is predicted for the next few days in the greater part of the country east of the Rocky Mountains. "It is probable," said the weekly bulletin tonight, "that general frosts will occur in the first half of the week in the great central valleys, the Eastern States and the interior of the South. Normal temperatures will prevail on the Pacific Slope. There will be rains Monday in the Eastern states, the Upper Ohio Valley and the Great Lake region. Otherwise the next several days will be generally fair east of the Rocky Mountains."

"The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the Northwest Tuesday or Wednesday, move eastward and cross the great central valleys Thursday or Friday and the Eastern States near the end of the week; this disturbance will be preceded by a general change to high temperature, be attended by rains in the Southern and Middle States east of the Rocky Mountains and rains and snows along the Northern borders. It will be followed by colder weather, which will appear in the Northwest about Thursday.

"There are no indications of a disturbance in the West Indies."
